

Letter from Mabel Hubbard Bell to Eliza Symonds Bell, December 5, 1875, with transcript

Letter from Miss Mabel G. Hubbard to Mrs. Alexander Melville Bell December 5th 1875 My dear Mrs. Bell:

Thank you very much for your kind note. It is very pleasant to know that Alec's father and Mother of whom he is so fond and about whom he has so often spoken think so kindly of me and are so ready to take me to their hearts. I hope to merit your love by being a good and faithful wife to him and in making him as happy as he will make me. He is such a noble man and is so good to me, I love him better and am more proud of him every time I see him. I only hope I may satisfy his family and friends half as well as he has done mine.

I am looking forward impatiently to the time when I can become better acquainted with you and Mr. Bell.

With kindest regards to him and to yourself in which my father and mother join,

I am Yours sincerely Mabel G. Hubbard
